

Youth in Arts®

Developing An Arts Learning Community
Parents Make it Happen!

With diminishing funds for arts education, Youth in Arts provides workshops to train parents to bring more arts into the classroom. Each workshop provides hands on activities and lesson plans, which parent volunteers can replicate immediately. $500 per 90-minute session (plus supplies if needed)

Creating an Arts Learning Community

Learn how to cultivate talent and interest in your community to make arts a central focus of student learning.

Volunteering in the Classroom

Discover strategies for successful collaboration with teachers and learn recycled arts projects you can easily lead as a volunteer.

Making Learning Visible

This powerful photography-based technique for documenting student art work is a perfect opportunity for meaningful parent involvement in the school art curriculum.

Classroom Connections

Detailed, hands-on instruction in a wide range of grade level art projects with specific curriculum links.

Bookmaking and Literacy

Learn to make ten different handmade books to inspire young writers.

Creative Holiday Projects

Leave the catalogues behind and learn hands-on holiday art projects kids will love

Creating an Auction Item

Consult with a professional artist on creating simple yet beautiful auctions items with children.

Art is Creativity = visual, theatre, dance, music and new media.